Subject: Prime Time Auctions / Max Hollis

Claire,

Spoke with Max Hollis of Prime Time Auctions yesterday, February 08, 2006. I Max if he had received all monies owed to him by SDI, Ltd. He said he had. I then asked why he placed a demand in our escrow for the sale of a Vegas property and whether he was owed money from the company with respect to such property. Max said no. I advised Max that he has created problems for the company and was he aware that he is party to an Interpleader. He said he was. He explained that Cliff Strand owed him $20,000 and asked him to place a demand in escrow. I asked Max what that has to do with the Company? I inquired whether he signed the demand and he was unclear stating he might have or Cliff did it on his behalf. I then asked if he did sign a demand. He said he may or may not have. Later stating he did. He then stated that he assigned his demand to Mrs. Strand. I asked if this was Denise Strand? He said yes. I asked if he thought he was no longer involved and out of the interpleader? He said yes. I told Max that this has created problems and that our counsel may have to contact him regarding the interpleader.
